

THE PHANTOM

"When Reggie Westlake shows up at the pep rally starting off the football season, the crowd goes wild. He's the greatest player Stony Bay High School ever had. Quarterback and captain, he led the team to the championship two years in a row, raising school spirit higher than ever before. No one could forget his black and gold jersey, bearing the number nine. He'll always be a school hero. There's just one thing...Reggie's dead.."

Reader's Opinions

What a waste of paper. Barbara Steiner has written some quality books, and some not so quality books, The Phantom is one of the poorly written ones. It was bad from the first word to the last. Amelia spends much of the story...

One of my childhood favorites.
