Reader's Opinions

If you're looking for first-rate literature, turn back now before the Shatzilla gets you. But if you want a fun, riotous adventure of low-brow literature and high-octane chuckles, then you won't find much better. This quest to save William Shatner is witty and engaging, taking almost enough creative license to land this author in the...

A fantastically funny sequel to 'Shatnerquake', whose plot revolves around three nerdy friends setting out to rescue William Shatner following the Apocalypse. The story follows their journey, full of marvelously shallow and self-centred character moments, as they cross the States to rescue their hero from whatever troubles he might be...
