Reader's Opinions

This was an excellent book filled with wonderful stories and the most amazing heroes and wonderful women who love them. I savored each story and was sorry when it ended. The only story where I did find the hero questionable was "Weathering the Storm". For this reader, the author presented him as a bit of a fool, and this is...

Tales of Mischief during the Christmas season!Mischief and Mistletoe is the wondrous collaboration of eight women known as the Word Wenches, a group of highly talented authors who often can be found on the New York Times and USA Today bestsellers lists. These fine women have come together to bring forth their own flair...
