Reader's Opinions

Grade: D for lot of eye-rolling and some major ::HEADDESK::ing. This started out as a One-Quote Review, and then four hours later I found myself in the throes of a Full Snark Bitchfest. You're damn right I am. Also, if you give me cake to relax, it better not be made of Ivory Soap. If you read the whole epic rant, you'll see why. But here's...

This was a cute, contemporary sports romance. Actually it was like 3 romances in one. Jacy & Risk are ostensibly the main couple, but their story didn't really grab me. I liked them both and sometimes they were fun together but they were a little frustrating too as they really only needed to have one conversation to move on with their...
