

INTO THE WASTELANDS

Dear Author, Riding through the desert on a routine patrol, I come across this... He's been left in the sand to die... by who? What is his crime? And dare I rescue him? He won't survive the heat of the coming day. It would be so easy to let the sun make my decision for me, and truly, that's what I should do....

Reader's Opinions

I love the background behind the story and the issues that arise from men from two faiths will have as they enter a relationship. The story just didn't completely appeal to me. It might have been because it felt like too much of an info dump at times. There's a lot of great aspects that I think would work better if the story were longer...

Keric was a man, one of the tattooed people, who was sent off on his own by his uncle, the malevolent leader of their people. The tattoos channel their people's power and magic. Keric is not like the others. He advocates peace and understanding in the face of his uncle's destructive ways, and he also can't control his magic. He is plagued...
