

GOLD TITHINGS

He'd never had another man belong to him, not like this, where the ties between them were a leash and an iron collar. When Anton goes to market to buy an ox, he comes home with a slave—rebellious, resentful Petre, who has nothing to say to...

Reader's Opinions

Anton goes to the market to buy an ox with his meagre income, but he buys a slave instead. Petre, his new slave, is mouthy and has a bad attitude, that was why he was doomed to die on the mines. These rough and introvert men have to negotiate a relationship through the hardships of working in the farm. This is a very short, but deeply...

As a rule I don't read short shorts but this time I made an exception because I liked In Allegiance very much and sometimes I want to give authors money so they can keep up the good work. Turned out, that was a very good idea because that is one well-written, atmospheric story. Of course it's too short for me because I'm greedy and always...
