

EVENTUS

When seventeen year old Evan discovered he was nearly omnipotent, he used it to get anything he could think of... well, almost anything. He enjoyed his extreme pranks and got away with it every single time. Spared from his twisted and perverted wishes, his parents were the only ones he truly cared about. Never one to guard his thoughts and unaware of the extent or the limitations of his godlike powers, one day, he makes a wish that forever changes his life... and the world.

Reader's Opinions

S. J. Hermanns writing is innovative and refreshingly not run of the mill. This fantasy tale I found difficult to categorise in one genre. Its almost a parody of Bildungsroman, although Evan never quite makes it as a mature human adult. Dont get me wrong this is an engaging short tale. Evan as a young boy discovers his exceptional talents...
