

DEAD HEAT

The heart just knows... The city of Toronto is now a thriving hotbed of undead activity, and Dana Layton, brash zombie hunter with a temper as fiery as her hair, believes in only one thing: taking care of business. As a member of an elite zombie hunting organization, Dana can hang with the best of them, but the wall around her heart is as high as the one erected...

It's easy to tell when a writer of zombie fiction truly loves zombies. Ren Thompson is such a writer. Dead Heat has all the essential zombie tropes but it also strikes out to new territory, satisfying the urge to read about zombies without ever becoming cliché or predictable. The story focuses on Dana, a rough cage-fighter and member...
