Peek Inside the Book

God's ways often didn't make sense upon first glance. Dani Pettrey, Still Life //

They were all highly respectable in their professions and, together, practically unstoppable. But most importantly, they were on her side. She couldn't feel more blessed....or anxious. She sighed. in italics Forgive me, Lord, for being so antsy. For worrying, I know it adds nothing to my life or any help to the situation at hand, but it's my friend's disappearance that we're investigating, and I don't know where to...

Reader's Opinions

From Dani Pettrey's very first book, I knew this was an author I wanted to follow and my opinion has only been reinforced with each new book she writes. This is the second in her 'Chesapeake Valor' series and it's just tremendous. Avery Tate has been blacklisted in the photography business over a controversial shot when she answered...
