Peek Inside the Book

Sometimes I marvel at the extras God provides. He meets our needs, yes, but so much more. He did not have to make the world a bright, colorful place of beauty. He could have simply provided the...

I think, Lillian, that when we do not pause to admire Gods wonderful handiwork in putting this world together, we disappoint Him. Surely He must delight in our wonder when we delight in His creation. Kim Vogel Sawyer, Fields of Grace //

Reader's Opinions

In Fields of Grace, Kim takes us to a Mennonite village in Russia in 1872 as a family is immigrating to America so their soon to be 18 year old son, Henrik, does not have to join the military which is against their religious beliefs. Tragedy strikes on the voyage over and lives are changed forever. Henrik feels guilt over everything...
