Reader's Opinions

Very cute and the editor donated a free copy to my library in order for queer teens to be able to see themselves in comics. That makes it five stars. Some stories I like more than others but such is the nature of Anthology.

This is a fun volume of short cartoon stories that are paranormal with a queer theme. Some are better than others, of course, but a good, fine collection. We have ghosts falling in love with humans. Humans falling in love with vampires. One cute one was a...
