Reader's Opinions

This was a short read - but don't let that fool you. This story was an emotional roller coaster. The author did a great job pulling the reader into the life...

Within the Silence is fascinating, and a clever study of human behaviour both endurance and acceptance of restriction; exploring how regulation can gradually become more and more extreme. This is the story of Master Jacob Wentrin and the man he holds in captivity as his slave. Told in the first person from the slave's point of view,...
